

What's waiting for you in Old Louisville?

- Stunning architecture!
 - Secluded walking courts!
 - Victorian history!
 - Legends and lore!
 - 19th-century charm!
- ...and maybe a ghost or two!

With 45 square blocks and more than 1,400 old houses, Old Louisville counts as a veritable treasure trove of American residential architecture from the late 1800s and very early 1900s. Richardsonian Romanesque, Gothic, Italianate, Arts and Crafts, Queen Anne, and Châteauesque are just some of the styles on display. See why The New York Times recommends a tour with us!

Come and discover Old Louisville ...by day or night!

$20 per person; 90 minutes

Private and group tours available

Step-on services for coaches

Departing from...

Smokey's Bean Coffee Shop
1212 South Fourth Street
Louisville, Kentucky 40203

Phone: 502-718-2764

Website: louisvillehistorictours.com

E-mail: davidram13@gmail.com

Recommended by The New York Times!

Old Louisville - America's Largest Victorian Neighborhood!

*See what everyone is talking about!
Visit this nationally acclaimed historic preservation district!*

Mar. 15–Nov. 15

POPULAR WALKING TOURS

Recommended by The New York Times!

America's Most Haunted Neighborhood

Daily at 7:30 PM *

The most haunted neighborhood in America? That's what many are calling Old Louisville, an extensive preservation district filled with old mansions and strikingly beautiful homes in Kentucky's largest city. Wherever you go in this eye-popping neighborhood, it seems that a haunted house is not far away. Or a haunted church, a haunted street corner, or a haunted park. Over the last two decades, so many stories of supernatural activity have surfaced here that Old Louisville has gained the undeniable reputation of being the spookiest neighborhood in the entire country.

Join a guide for this nightly walk that introduces you to the ghostly past and paranormal hotspots in America's Most Haunted Neighborhood. Best enjoyed against the backdrop of gas lamps and hidden walking courts, this haunted history tour has received awards and accolades from respected national and international publications such as Southern Living.

America's Most Exuberant Neighborhood

Daily at 11 AM & 1 PM *

Since it was declared a historic preservation district in the 1970s, many have considered Old Louisville the most architecturally exuberant neighborhood in the country. With more than a thousand old homes, it's one of the largest as well. Constructed primarily between 1880 and 1905, the residences in Old Louisville showcase a wide variety of styles that incorporate elegant details and stunning design features.

If you like old homes and fabulous architecture, this is a tour you won't want to miss. A knowledgeable guide will share stories and architectural secrets while you walk the neighborhood and view its most impressive structures. At the same time, you will learn about the bourbon barons, racetrack royalty, and tobacco titans who lived there and hear the stories of how they and other colorful characters made this historic district America's Most Exuberant Neighborhood.

LAST-MINUTE RESERVATIONS?
No problem.
Bring your well-behaved dog along!

since 2004 ...
Old Louisville's
ORIGINAL
walking tours!

Award-winning tours based on books by David Dominé

Purchase books
at amazon.com
or after the tour
at Smokey's
Bean!

As part of the Oak Street revitalization efforts, Louisville Historic Tours has relocated to 1212 South Fourth Street! Tours start and end at the transitional edge of the neighborhood. As in any larger city, be mindful of your safety when in the downtown area.

From downtown Louisville, proceed south along Fourth Street until you cross Oak Street and pass PNC Bank on the right. There is plenty of street parking. Meet your guide in Smokey's Bean Coffee Shop. Bring an umbrella if it's raining. Private tours on request year-round.

Call
502-718-2764
for reservations!
Cost:
$20 per person
Mar.15-Nov.15